21 January 2026

Dear Rehan

I am writing to you further to the completion of your probationary period of employment, which was extended on 13 September 2025 and which extended period concluded on 21 January 2026

As you are aware, during the course of your probationary period the expectations of successful completion of your probation required the following:

- To be signed-off on Akta set up
- Maintain core CSOD reads at 95%
- To be signed-off on prep and scheduling, or
- To be signed-off on IPF

During this time there were multiple opportunities (see appendix 1) for you to complete the requirements above, however you have been unsuccessful in completing either being signed-off on prep and scheduling or being signed-off on IPF.

In relation to your punctuality, specifically the dates that followed the team meeting on 4 January 2026, I reset the expectations that you were to be on site at the area of work by 06:00, which is your contractual start time. You failed to meet this expectation, as you were late on multiple occasions (see appendix 2).

You were advised of concerns and relayed expectations regarding the number, frequency and duration of the breaks you have been taking during our one to one meetings. You failed to meet the expectations around these breaks on multiple occasions (see appendix 2).

Unfortunately you have not met the standards that the organisation requires for employees of your position. For this reason you were invited to another meeting on 21 January 2026 to discuss your unsatisfactory performance. At that meeting, the organisation decided to terminate your employment.

Your dismissal will take effect as of 21 January 2026, aligned with the organisations payroll date you have already received your full salary for January, so there will have been an over payment made covering 28-31 January. Deductions will be made from any outstanding payments owed, Payroll will be in touch should there be any further matters to discuss. All terms and benefits associated with your employment will cease as of the end of 21 January 2026. The organisation will provide you with your form P45 following your final salary payment.

You have the right to appeal against the decision to dismiss you. If you wish to appeal, you should do so in writing within five working days to Sharon O'Connell, Head of HR (sharon.oconnell@lonza.com), stating the grounds for your appeal.

Yours sincerely

Razwan Jamil
DSP Plant Lead
