1. On 8 September did you hear Razwan mention anything to Rehan about his nervous appearance?

E2 - No, I haven't spoken to Raz about Rehan.

VJ – no, it's whether you heard Raz say that to Rehan

E2 – No. I've heard other people say it

VJ - Who please?

E2 - Just other people in the hot desk area, 'cos he's new. Lots of new starters are nervous

VJ – why?

E2 - It's intimidating coming here as a new person, just things are new. Saying that, everyone is really friendly. I train a lot of new starters, some people are more confident than others, some are more nervous.

VJ – so just general chat?

E2 – yes

VJ – nothing specific?

E2 – no

VJ – this won't get anyone in 'trouble', it all helps us sort things out

E2 – I can't recall about Rehan

2. On 9 September – can you recall when you had your breaks, and did the times align with Rehan's?

We're in buffers, at the start of process. All I can say is he sometimes wants to go for break before other people, sometimes he is longer than others. So the answer is no, not aligned.

3. Did you receive an email from Rehan concerning breaks on that day? If so, did you reply?

No, only had one email from him the other day asking me for feedback about his 3 monthly thing he had.

VJ – did you give any feedback?

E2 – no, normally I wait for their boss to ask me, I wouldn't fill in a form the actual person sent me, I wait for their superior to ask me

4. Did you hear Huda relaying any concerns about Rehan appearing nervous to anyone?

No, Huda is on the opposite shift so unless she's in on OT I don't see her. No, never heard Huda talk about anyone.

1. On 13 September did you receive an email from Rehan regarding an Excel file or any other documents?

No. I was on annual leave around that time, so I may have missed it, but I haven't seen one

2. On 28 September, did you witness a conversation between Razwan and Rehan in which Razwan challenged Rehan about his time off plant for any reason, including breaks and end of shift?

No I didn't

3. Did you receive an email from Rehan about this, and if so, did you reply?

Not about that, but I did receive an email from Rehan asking about how his performance has been since he started, but that's the first email I recall getting from him

1. On 8 September did you hear Razwan mention anything to Rehan about his nervous appearance?

No, Raz never said anything to me, and I haven't heard him talking to other people about that

2. Did you work on buffer tasks with Rehan, and if so, can you recall any incidents?

No, I know he felt sick a few days and he had to go to toilet often, but that's it from him – is that an incident? He would ask me to go to toilet and I would tell him to ask Andy who is in charge. I know he called once to say he wasn't coming back, and the person asked him to tell the manager

3. On 26 September did you witness Stephen Dowse discuss lateness with Rehan?

No. Stephen once discussed lateness in the morning meeting, he said can we keep on track with the timings but referred to everybody. Raz was also there. When I just joined, he said 'come on guys, morning is for readings'.

4. Have you ever heard any conversation regarding Rehan's health and aptitude take place in the smoking area, or any mention of accessing his swipe card access records?

No, I don't smoke, I never go there. Never heard that conversation either

5. On 27 September, did you ask Rehan if he was ok?

I think I have, he was upstairs and said he wasn't coming back. If that was the date, I did ask if he was OK, and he said he had an upset stomach. Can't remember date. Was when he said he wasn't coming back down

6. Can you recall how many times you asked?

Just once

7. On 27 September, did you witness Razwan refuse to investigate a complaint from Rehan? If so, what did you hear?

No, not heard that

8. On 28 September, did you witness a conversation between Razwan and Rehan in which Razwan challenged Rehan about his time off plant for any reason, including breaks and end of shift?

No, I never heard any conversation. I saw them talking, but he talks to me or anyone, I don't know what is said

1. On 11 October did you hear Slavica and Rehan discussing a Reducer?

No? A reducer? No I don't think so. If it was discussed I wasn't listening

2. Later on this day, did you hear Slavica ask Rehan to carry out environmental monitoring?

Before she asked him she asked if he was signed off to do it. She asked me first, I said no sorry, so she asked Rehan, and he said yes he was signed off, and she said for him to perform it then, and he said no, I don't remember how to do it, and they had a conversation about that, and Slavica said please be careful when you get signed off on things that you know how to do it, and explained why, and then she had to do it. She said 'not trying to be rude, but if you signed off and don't know how to do things then this happens, so please ensure you know before being signed off', which is fair

3. Can you recall where this took place and who else was present using this conversation?

It was me, Rehan, Shraddha, we were in a suite, one or two

4. On 12 October, did you hear Monika Courtneil mispronounce Rehan's name?

Yes

5. If so, what did you hear?

I think instead of Rehan she said Rye? She shortened it I think. He corrected her and she said 'I'm so sorry, what's the correct pronunciation?'

6. Did you hear Monika and Rehan discuss what names Rehan was happy for Monika to use for him?

Yes, I don't remember what other name was mentioned though, he said 'like this or like this'

7. Did you hear Razwan comment on the situation?

No? He came after, he wasn't there, he was around but not when that happened, he didn't say anything about it

8. Did you hear Razwan say 'it's fine as long as no one's feelings are hurt' in response to this situation?

No, not that

2. Did you reply?

No

E6 – it was on 1 October

VJ – requesting feedback?

E6 – yes

VJ – was it about a specific incident?

E6 – he sent me a template where I was meant to enter information about things like his performance, punctuality and performance, training and training progress, overall performance. He asked me to provide a brief written statement or complete the template and return it to him. I actually went to him to ask him why he sent it to me, and he told me it's because he just started and he wants feedback

3. Did you hear Rehan correct Monika?

Yes

1. On 9 September – can you recall when you had your breaks, and did the times align with Rehan's?

I will look at the calendar, that was a Tuesday. Usually, I would have a morning break around 9 or 10, then lunch around 1 or 2, but can be delayed. I only remember two or three times where I had lunch break with Rehan, where he'd sit with me at the lunch table, but don't know the dates

VJ – do your breaks usually align with his?

E8 – no, he takes morning breaks to go upstairs. I worked in buffer a few times, I remember he asked to go on break early, usually we all wait to go together, or divide the process we're working on so two go and two stay, he might have asked if he can go earlier and not with others, but maybe only once I witnessed that. He would never go without asking though

2. Did you receive an email from Rehan concerning breaks on that day? If so, did you reply?

No, only message from Rehan was on Teams maybe three weeks ago, I was a trained operator in the suite, everyone else started later, and he didn't feel well on that day. We went on plant around 7am, he left maybe one hour later, and he called me and said his stomach was upset. Was on 26 Sept, he messaged me on Teams and said he'd be off plant for the rest of the day, he was feeling unwell. I said talk to plant lead, let them know you'll be upstairs as you can't be on plant if you're sick, I said stay off plant that's fine

3. Did you hear Huda relaying any concerns about nervousness in relation to Rehan to anyone?

No

4. On 26 September did you witness Stephen Dowse discuss lateness with Rehan?

No. 26 September was when he was off plant on that day, but didn't hear Stephen say anything to him. Rehan did say he was going to let a plant lead know he was unwell on that day, but I didn't witness any conversation.

5. Have you ever heard any conversation regarding Rehan's health and aptitude take place in the smoking area, or any mention of accessing his swipe card access records?

No, I don't smoke, only thing Rehan said was on next day was he was very apologetic, and I said how he's feeling, and he said can't sleep at night so takes calming pills and they upset his stomach, which is why he had problems, only health issue and he mentioned it to me

6. You worked in suite one with Rehan on 26 September; did you receive an email about any of the events on 26 September, and if so, did you reply?

No

7. On 27 September, did you ask Rehan if he was ok? Can you recall the context? Can you recall how many times you asked?

Yes I did ask him, only once; he was apologetic so felt it was polite of me to ask him and he mentioned about not sleeping

8. On 27 September, did you witness Razwan refuse to investigate a complaint from Rehan?

No, I didn't

[REDACTED]

1. In late Aug early Sept on 2 to 3 occasions was diarrhoea reported to you from Rehan?

Yes, I can't remember the exact dates, but there has been communication about that

2. If yes, did you say anything about this to anyone else, and if so, what did you say?

I would've mentioned it to his team lead, that he wasn't feeling well, perhaps would've said tummy issues, as a plant lead as a duty of care mentioned it to Raz. If you've got a bug or are contagious, you would need to stay off plant. If it's indigestion or something you can go on plant, so it's down to how are you feeling, we don't want people caught in a position where they're uncomfortable

3. Did you refer the employee to OH?

No

4. If not, why not?

Because people can feel unwell at times, they'd come off the area and get a drink of water or fresh air, but didn't seem warranted at the time. If it was more chronic, might have, but not at that time

5. Did Rehan ever ask you to refer him?

Not me, no

6. Did you discuss any reasonable adjustments?

Personally no, only conversations we had on this issue was how are you feeling, are you OK, are you well enough to go on plant? Mainly how are you, how are you feeling type questions. When he reported it a few times to me and also to Raz I did ask him if he was ok and just let him talk, he mentioned he had been on a medication that was making him feel a little unwell from time to time, but then it was off it and still feeling unwell so might go see a doctor. That was maybe at the end of September

7. Did you discuss Rehan's health and attendance with other managers or supervisors?

Only with Raz, his Team Lead

8. If so, where?

In the room I'm in now - the conference room - and also in a little office around the corner

9. Did you have any conversations with Rehan about him being off plant every other day?

Not specifically every other day, the only the conversation when I asked him how you are and was checking on him, because he'd mentioned it a few times, so only when he reported feeling unwell, we'd ask him then or when he was back – making sure he's OK to go back to work on plant

10. 17 September – did you witness anyone discuss toilet habits with Rehan?

No I haven't heard anyone discuss Rehan's toilet habits with him. I have heard about a discussion about him leaving plant but not first hand. I have heard second hand about Rehan leaving plant for whatever reason.

VJ – who from?

E10 – Raz had heard it from a buffer prep technician that Rehan had left plant leaving the other technician on their own. This was Tianni. People do need to leave plant from time to time, but communication is key, and Tianni was confused when Rehan didn't come back. But this was third hand from Raz

11. 26 September – did you discuss Rehan's lateness with him?

Yes

12. If so, where did this conversation take place and what was said?

It was as he was passing my desk in the corridor. He was 15 mins late and I enquired what was the reason, and I asked him if he knew the policy around communication of letting us know if he was going to be late

13. Was anyone else there?

No

14. Was there any mention of swipe access logs being obtained?

No

15. Have you had any conversations in the smoking area about Rehan's health or aptitude?

Not with anyone else, with him - the conversation with Rehan about his medication took place in the smoking shed, it was the day he was complaining of feeling unwell, we were in the smoking shed, casual, I asked how he was feeling, and that's when he mentioned about the medication he was on, and the symptoms he got from it, and still feeling unwell from time to time, and he mentioned about the doctor.

16. Was anyone else there?

No. I have spoken to Rehan about the best way to approach bits and pieces regarding his training but again casual and would have had the discussion with any new starter. But not spoken about his ability with anyone else in the smoking shed. We've had a few occasions together in the smoking shed where he was asking me about the business and other departments so I told him about that.

17. On 27 September, did you ask Rehan if he was ok? Can you recall the context? Can you recall how many times you asked?

I'm sure I will have done. I think this was the day he let me know he came off plant, he was in the hotdesk area, said he was unwell and had diarrhoea, asked me if he should go back on plant, I said not if still unwell, and then a little while later he went into more detail, said not feeling great, had tore himself, sounded very uncomfortable so I said to stay off plant and catch up with training and SOPs, so that's why I asked him again if he was OK

18. On 6 October, during an in-person meeting where you introduced new starters, did you share a photo of Rehan?

Yes, we had a comms meeting, part of it is to take a photo of new starters and share it with the team

19. Did you make any negative comments about him, or the process of the photos, or the photo itself?

I can't recall that. Tara was there as well

20. Did you comment that hopefully people wouldn't have to look at the photo for much longer?

Again I don't remember saying anything along those lines, unless I said something about people feeling embarrassed about having their photos up so maybe saying to people that I'll take the photos down soon

1. On 8 September did you hear Razwan mention anything to Rehan about his nervous appearance?

No

2. Did you work on buffer tasks with Rehan, and if so, can you recall any incidents?

Yes, but no I can't

3. On 9 September – can you recall when you had your breaks, and did the times align with Rehan's?

No I can't recall, I'd handed my notice in the day before. I did often go on breaks with Rehan and the others. A couple of times Rehan would be late back from breaks, once I asked someone to look for him but he appeared shortly after. He did ask a few times to go on break early, and once I asked him to wait so I could finish my task, but that's all.

4. Did you receive an email from Rehan concerning breaks on that day? If so, did you reply?

I did receive an email from him asking for feedback, but that's the only email I can think of, but I didn't reply because I wouldn't respond unless it was from a manager – I've never had an email like that coming directly from a person so I didn't respond

5. Did you hear Huda relaying any concerns about nervousness in relation to Rehan to anyone?

Never, I can't even recall them working together?

6. Did you report Rehan as being un-locatable, and if so, who to?

Yes, when I couldn't find him after the break mentioned before I phoned up the Plant Lead phone and asked Raz who answered if he'd seen Rehan, and he said no, so I asked him to look at the hotdesk, and he couldn't see him, so I said no worries he might be getting changed, and then he appeared so I told Raz via Teams he had. There was another conversation but I can't remember when, Rehan had asked me if he could go to the toilet and I said yes no problem, and he was gone for 25 to 30 mins, and I got a call from Raz, and he was asking if Rehan was meant to be working with me in buffers, and I said yes but he's gone to the toilet. Those are the only conversations I've had about him

1. On 6 October, during an in-person meeting where new starters were introduced to the team, were photos of the new starters displayed by Stephen Dowse?

Yes. It's a monthly comms meeting, typically held in the conference rooms. We show photos of the new starters to put faces to names, because we've had so many, we do it with all the new starters coming in

2. Did you hear any negative comments from anyone about any of the new starters or their photos, or about the process of sharing the photos itself?

No. The only comment on of the new people had was that their name had been spelt incorrectly, Kush had an 'H' missing. There might have been a comments like 'oop! That's a bit of an error on our part', something silly like that

VJ – Who said that please?

E13 – probably Steve. I can't think of anything else... someone actually said, I can't think who, someone said to Kush after that comment someone said 'your photo is the most smiley out of everyone'

3. Did you hear anyone comment that hopefully people wouldn't have to look at the photos for much longer?

No

4. Can you remember any unusual comments from anyone about anything in this meeting?

Yes. Rehan asked about compensation for accidents at work and what Lonza's compensation policy was, because we were talking about safety at the time, it's one of the topics we discuss, and I said we don't have a specific compensation policy, but if it was something an individual would want to pursue they'd get external counsel. I thought that was unusual and did say I'd ask HR. So I messaged Laura Jones and Clare Atkinson on Teams to ask and Laura replied that Lonza has Employer Liability Insurance and that it's something legal would manage rather than HR. In terms of any other unusual comments, we talk about projects we're doing, deviations... One thing that came up which was a bit negative – on our innovation slide we're bringing an automated bulk fill system into the facility, and on the slide it had been named 'Boris', and this didn't go down well.

VJ – what did people say?

E13 – people said they don't think it's a very good thing to call it Boris. We call our equipment all sorts of things, one thing is called 'The Beast' because it's gigantic.

I just noticed there was chatter and mutterings, so I said to the Plant Leads we might have to rename it. That's all I can think of.

1. On 27 September, did you ask Rehan if he was ok?

I don't think so? I don't really work with him. I think I've worked with him on one occasion, may be that day. The first and only time I worked with him and I remember because it was my first day back from holiday. We were in suite one, it was right after I got back from holidays, my first day back and I hadn't spoken to him before that, and we were working together and we came down on plant around 6:45am, and at 7:30 he asked me can he go toilet, because I was suite lead, actually first he asked can he go off plant and I asked why, and he just said he had some issues and needed to go to toilet, and I said yes if you're not well or whatever go on. He came back after 25 mins, and then we went on break and he sat down with us to have a breakfast, and that was it. I didn't ask him if he was OK, but I asked him why he needed to go off plant because he was assigned to the suite and I was suite lead, I think it was a Saturday. I just asked him why does he need to go off plant, and he said he has some problems. That's it.

[REDACTED]

1. On 11 October when you were supervisor for the process being worked on, did Rehan ask you what a Reducer looks like?

Yes. In context, I asked Rehan that day to do some kitting for the suite, and I made a list of things we need to do, and it's common we send new starters to do kit lists because it's the only way they can be involved in the suites at that point. I assumed he knew what he was getting, and he asked me 'what is a reducer?'. So I said 'what?', and he asked again. I was confused, it's the most common item we use in purification, and I said 'you don't know?' and he said no, and I asked him how long have you worked here? And he said 4 months, and I said if you go into the autoclave room, everything will be labelled for you, and that was the end of that conversation

2. So you asked him 'how long have you worked here?'

Yes, because I was shocked, it's one of the most common items, we use it every day. He was behaving as if he didn't want to do the kitting. There is no initiative from him to do anything, you always have to give him tasks all the time, ask him to do things

3. Did you say to him that he should know what the Reducer looks like having worked here for the time he has?

Yes I did

4. How did he respond?

He just went out of the suite and found it

5. Was anyone else around?

Sara was in there, and Shraddha

6. Later on this day, did you ask him to carry out environmental monitoring?

Yes I did. We had invalid assay on a solos, and this generates paperwork. It's not a common happening, so you have to follow the SOP and we had to find it for the procedure. Was end of the day, around 5:37pm, which is late for us, we usually finish by 5:30pm and go upstairs by 5:45pm. We were nowhere near finished. I was only one trained on the SOP for the invalid assay so I needed to do it. But, we also had to do environmental monitoring. I found that document and left it on the bench. Asked Sara if she could do it, but she said seen it once but not trained. She said could I show it to her, I said not really because I had to deal with the invalid assay, so I asked Rehan are you signed off for environmental monitoring, and he said yes. So I said 'great, can you do it then please', and he said no, because he doesn't know how to do it. So I asked 'what do you mean you don't know how'? And he said he doesn't remember it. I asked him how can he have been signed off if he can't remember it. He said it was about a month ago he got signed off. I said to him next time don't get signed off for an activity you're not confident doing. I wasn't being rude, just said he shouldn't be signed off if not confident. He said he was confident at the time, and I said ok, but we need you to be able to do these things if you're signed off, and you can't do it. And he said 'yeah but was confident but don't remember how to do it anymore' and I said often I go into bulk fill for a month or two and don't see the suites, but when I get back from bulk fill into a suite they expect me to know how to do the things I'm signed off for, you can't just say I don't know how to do it when you're signed off to do it. And there was no one else, two operators had left the plant, and he was signed off as being able to do something he couldn't do. I told him he could leave the suite because there was nothing else for him to do, and he and Sara left

7. Can you recall where this took place and who else was present using this conversation?

We were in Suite One, and Sara and Shraddha were present

[REDACTED]

1. In late August early September did you discuss Rehan's health and attendance with other managers or supervisors?

Not in detail, but I did say to Steve Dowse that he has a health issue we need to be careful how we manage him

VJ – what do you mean?

E15 – he told me he's on medication that messes with his stomach, and he needs to go to toilet a lot, so it was 'cut him slack', because there's two of us managers - me and Steve - and Steve needs to know why he might be going off plant. When someone is on plant, if they have a dodgy gut, they can't always go on plant, so that's another reason Steve'd need to know. Rangel, another plant leave, spoke to me too because he did a return to work meeting with Rehan, and Rehan explained his conditions with Rangel, and from that, Rangel raised an OH referral, and Rangel shared the details of that conversation with me

2. Where did your conversation with Steve take place?

Up in the office, or could've been in this breakout room actually.

3. Who else was there?

No one, Steve and I go into rooms to talk about personal or private stuff

4. Where was the conversation with Rangel?

A phone call, and I was at home then

5. Did you have any conversations with Rehan about him being off plant 'every other day'?

Yes. It was when he sat down with me and said I wasn't being supportive, and I said quite frequently you're coming off plant. I might have said 'every other day'. He was not on plant, coming off really frequently, or he's not going on

VJ – context of that conversation please?

E15 – Rehan was saying I'm asking about his health too much and I should back off, and I explained I was asking how he was because he'd been off plant every other day, so I need to check in to see how he is

6. On 8 September did you arrange a probation review for Rehan to take place on 13 September, and make any comment about Rehan appearing to be nervous?

He's got that mixed up. The probation was extended, and I've done that with all new starters, gone from 3 to 6 month probation period. But for Rehan, I've done it early, and I did that to take some pressure off him, to give him as much notice as possible, so that he knows that to be successful what activities he needed completed, so that it wasn't just 'after 3 months I'm extended it'. I shared what he needed to be signed off on. To be successful, you need to do X Y and Z, so he knows. I got feedback from Technical Trainers that he was really nervous, so I was trying to look after him, I said 'don't be nervous, this is the feedback I've got, but we'll do the best for you'.

VJ - Which Trainer?

██████ told me he looked nervous

VJ - Where was the conversation with Rehan?

Here, the little meeting room, first floor 640

VJ - Who was there?

Just me and Rehan

VJ – can you recall where ██████ was when he gave you the feedback about Rehan? It would have been in the office, I think he came over to my desk and said it, but I'm not 100% sure

7. On 9 September, did Tianni tell you that she had been unable to locate Rehan during lunch?

Wasn't during lunch, was around 4pm-ish. She hadn't been able to locate him because he left the area, and Tianni said he didn't tell her where he was going, so she didn't know where he went. She said 'he walked off'. She phoned me because she was still on plant, in middle of buffer, she needed a checker, and he was the checker. He'd walked off and she couldn't complete her job without him

VJ – what did you do?

I found him, asked him to go back to Tianni as the checker to complete the buffer. I think I did say to him that Tianni had said to me 'you didn't tell her where you were going', but I just wanted him to go help complete the buffer. But since, when Rehan told me he was going to raise a grievance, Rehan said that him not telling the team where he'd gone was a false allegation made by Tianni, but I can't remember what I said, I just wanted him to go complete the buffer

VJ – when did Rehan tell you it was a false allegation?

27 September, in our 121

8. Was there any concerns about the duration of Rehan's lunch break on the day Tianni couldn't locate him?

No, the only thing I know is that he wasn't there when Tianni needed a checker

9. On 13 September, during the probation review, did Rehan make you aware of a mental health condition and the side effects of medication involving intermittent incontinence?

Yes he did. I just made a mental note of it

10. Did you advise Rehan that you keep logs on your direct reports?

I said I keep a template for my 121s just so I track them

VJ - Where you store the 121s?

In a folder on my One Drive

VJ - Can anyone else access them?

No

VJ - Do you share them with anyone?

No. When I'm having a 121 I'll show them, as a reminder, 'we spoke about this last time' and so on. Nothing else

11. Did you record sensitive health information about Rehan in an Excel spreadsheet?

No. I don't even think I put the details of his health in the 121 form

12. Did you extend Rehan's probation period? If so, for how long?

Yes, for three months.

13. Did you set targets?

Yes, written on the probation extension form. I shared it with him and he signed it

14. And can you confirm whether these are targets specific to Rehan or if they are for all operators?

These targets are consistent for all new starters – this is what we want

15. Did Rehan ask you to keep the health conditions confidential?

Yes

16. And did you?

Yes, I said to Steve need to support, and Rangel knows from the return to work he did, but did not go into detail with Steve

17. Did you receive an email from Rehan asking you to put the probation targets in writing to him?

I don't know, my inbox is crazy, I have 4923 unread emails, it's crazy, haven't seen that

18. On 17 September – did you discuss toilet habits with Rehan, specifically the frequency, and did you reference a comment made by Mike Betu that it is concerning a young man like Rehan needs to use the toilet in the morning?

No, this is the first time I've heard that Mike made any comment, only time I've discussed his toilet habits is when we've discussed him coming off plant

19. On 17 September did you raise concerns with Rehan about him being un-locatable?

Yes, he has a tendency to shoot off for a toilet break, and then a cigarette break. Been a couple of times I haven't known where he is, and I'm in charge of the area, and I've assigned him to something, and sometimes I don't know where he is.

20. Did you ever refer Rehan to OH?

No, because Rangel did that

VJ – have you seen the OH report?

I haven't, meeting was supposed to be on 30 September, but I'll have a look, because I haven't seen it

21. About the OH report then – what is the usual process?

Well Rangel said I was the manager, so it will come to me, and I'll review it to see what it says, and if we need to do anything. This is my bad, I haven't checked it. I'll have a look... [searches email]. I haven't received it. I'll follow up.

22. On 27 September, did you ask Rehan if he was ok?

Probably. I asked every day until 27th, I was trying to be a nice manager, checking in. Normally I go round the team to ask if everyone is alright, if everything is good. He had a puzzled look on that day, and then later sent an email saying we need a meeting. And then he said he wasn't happy with any manager asking if he's OK. He's happy with the team asking, but doesn't want me or any manager asking.

23. Did Rehan raise his distress at being asked if he was OK to you?

Yes, as above

24. Did he request that his concerns be investigated, verbally or in writing? Did you decline his request and state Rehan can 'do what he wants'?

No. He was challenged for being late, and he asked me to follow up on that which I did.

VJ – what happened?

He was late on 26 September, I wasn't in that day, he comes in late, he walked passed Steve, but didn't say anything about being late, so Steve stopped him and explained the policy about being late. Rehan said he didn't appreciate being spoken to in the open office, said he wanted a calendar invite, and an agenda and a meeting room. So I spoke to Steve and said in future if you need to speak to him, take it to a meeting room, and Steve was fine with that

25. On 28 September, did you challenge Rehan about his time off plant for any reason, including breaks and end of shift?

Yes I did. He was in a suite with a team, all on plant until 6pm, I was on plant and left at 5:40pm to go upstairs, I don't know when Rehan came off, but he was upstairs, he'd went for a toilet break, and I asked him why, and he said an operator had said don't come back down, we're coming up, but he hadn't told me, and we'd agreed the day before he should tell me if it was a non-standard break. He said we hadn't agreed that.

26. Did you see any documentation approving the off-plant time

I don't understand that? No?

27. On 2 October, did you ask Rehan about whether he had completed his CSOD training?

Yes, that's cornerstone

28. Did you ask anyone else the same?

Yes I did, we had training on the schedule, we had down time, and I asked him if he'd completed his training and others. There was a lot of training everybody had to do, asked about it. I feel like I can't ask him to do stuff. I've got my job to do.

[REDACTED]

1. On 12 October, did Rehan message you to say that he would be late to work?

He emailed me, at 6:40am, and I was already in my 6:30am meeting

2. When Rehan arrived at work, did you have a meeting with him at his request to discuss the reason for his lateness?

Yes.

3. What did Rehan say?

He said he overslept because he was over thinking about a situation the previous day. I think he said he took sleeping tablets but I can't recall what, but he was an hour and forty five minutes late

4. How did you respond?

I listened and said 'that's OK, but been late over last two days. Appreciate you have health issues, but it's still lateness, and need to make the time up somehow. But can deal with it later, lets get you working'. I didn't ask how he is because he doesn't like that, but said 'are you good to go on plant?' and he said 'yes' so that's where he went. He said day before he had been asked if he was signed off to do environmental monitoring, and when the suite lead Slavi asked him to do it he said he can't because he can't remember how to do it. And he feels he was talked down to, which upset him, and he felt belittled. So I talked to the suite lead, actually she came to talk to me after my 6:30am meeting and said 'there's a situation', and normally something like this wouldn't be conversation, because people know about the investigation and are apprehensive about that. Slavi said there'd been a problem with concentration test and she needed to focus on that, and she asked 'who's signed off on EM' and Rehan said he was but couldn't remember, and she said 'but you're signed off, and I need you to be able to do the job'. I spoke to Shraddha, she said Slavi wasn't rude, shouting or swearing, but was frustrated as she had to do the concentration test as well as the EM, even when there was someone signed off who should be able to do it but can't remember what to do

5. Did you discuss any feedback or concerns about Rehan's performance with him at this meeting?

Yes. The feedback I got from the guys was stemming from him not remembering the EM process, and I said 'that's not on, if you're signed off the onus is on you to know what you're doing'. And the feedback is he's not getting actively involved, he has to be prompted to get involved. He seems disinterested, heard that from a couple of people

VJ - Who?

Shraddha and Slavi

6. Did you mention concerns about Rehan looking nervous, using the toilet, or not being locatable at this meeting?

No, not that conversation, it was about his disinterest

7. Did you discuss other instances of lateness with Rehan, including whether he'd notified you of his lateness?

Yes, I said about the previous day, he was late but had phoned in and left a message but I didn't get that, and I don't know who he spoke to

8. Did you mention Rehan's suitability for the role?

No

9. Did you mention his ability to pass his probation?

No

10. Did Rehan ask you to investigate Slavica's behaviour from the previous day i.e. regarding not knowing what the Reducer looks like and not being signed off on training if he's not comfortable doing something individually, and mocking him about being able to do things despite being off suite for 2 months?

Yes

11. Did you follow up with an email to Rehan about this?

No, I spoke to Slavi after Rehan spoke to me. But can I go back on the probation piece? I didn't speak to him about his success on that, I just reminded him about his goals he needed to meet. He's sent me an email about that twisting my words. I was trying to say 'you must remember what you're signed off for, it's not good enough to say you can't remember, you have to remember all the goals we've set'. That was why I mentioned probation. I followed up with Slavi, and explained Rehan wasn't happy with what happened the day before, and said she felt bad, but she said 'I wasn't rude or trying to be disrespectful, but I was frustrated, because I'm trying to run a suite and someone is saying they're competent but are not'

12. Has Rehan emailed you, and have you taken an action as a result of the incident with Slavica?

Yes he has and I did respond to it. He sent me a template of feedback of names, times, dates and places, and I replied that in this instance I'm going to leave it informal, I feel like I've dealt with it by speaking with Slavi and making her aware of how Rehan felt

13. On 12 October, did you hear Monika Courtnell mispronounce Rehan's name?

No? She called him Ray when I was in there, and he'd said he was OK with that? I was in the suite, and Rehan and Daniel were going to go out to tidy up, and Monika called him Ray, and someone said 'his name is Rehan', I can't remember who that was, maybe Sara. And then Monika said 'I struggle to pronounce it but he's OK with me calling him Ray' and he said 'yes that's fine'

14. Did you comment on the situation?

I don't recall I might've smiled at them?

15. Did you say 'it's fine as long as no one's feelings are hurt' in response to this situation?

No I don't remember saying that

1. On 17 September did you say it was concerning that a young man like Rehan needed to use the toilet in the morning?

I recall the incident but did not say the exact words. It was the frequency, I didn't ask him directly, I was working with him. Let me explain. I was working with Rehan one morning, and I was held back in the morning upstairs after the team member but I can't recall why, I think Rehan went down on plant already into the suite we working on. I was delayed by 30 mins. When I went back down on plant he had left, he'd gone back up. So I was waiting for someone to help me move the 500L stedim, we had three to move, and the SOP says you need two people. I waited, but eventually I called the plant lead to ask where was my team. I went in the suite to try prepare the day, but reached the point where I needed the buffer again, so I went back and he was there, so we moved one, but then he needed to go again. I said 'is everything ok?' he said nothing, only that it's something important and he went out. I waited, but called the plant leads again, don't know which, but the plant lead said 'he has an upset stomach'. I phoned someone else to help me move the stedim. So I said to him, 'are you ok, because if you have an upset stomach, you can't be on plant, per SOP'. He said he was OK, but I think it bothered him, that I was asking because I was waiting to start the day and had asked plant lead. I didn't use those words.

2. Did Rehan email you about this?

I think he did, let me check my email, I think it was to explain the situation. Maybe he Teams-ed me, I don't have an email from him. I do recall him speaking to me about it, and then clarifying the situation on Teams. I recall the incident, I spoke to a plant lead, so I asked for someone else to be sent, so we could finish the day. We were dragging behind.

3. Did you reply?

I think I said 'everything is fine', because he spoke to me about it. I was working on plant the whole day, he messaged on Teams, and I didn't get to it, and when I came out for lunch he asked me about it, and I said it's fine, because it was fine, it wasn't a problem, only I was stuck because I was on my own twice and I raised it with a plant lead. In that situation I don't know any other way I could've moved forward than to raise it

1. On 11 October did you hear Slavica and Rehan discussing a Reducer?

Yes

2. If so, can you recall what was said

She asked him to do kitting, bring the consumables we needed from MSAT, and she asked him to bring reducer, and he didn't know what it was. So she said it's written in MST, labelled. She was surprised he didn't know what it was, it's a basic thing, kitting is one of the first things we ask them to do because they're not trained, so unusual to not know what it is

3. What did Slavica say that made you think she was surprised?

I think she asked him how many months he's been working here

4. Later on this day, did you hear Slavica ask Rehan to carry out environmental monitoring?

Yes

5. If so, can you recall what was said?

I was doing the failed assay, so wasn't standing right there but could hear it behind me. We were in a hurry, was towards end of day, something went wrong, we wanted to finish. I was doing assay, Slavica doing paperwork. Sara was there too, but not trained on Environmental Monitoring, so Slavica asked Rehan, he said yes he's signed off, and she asked him to do it. I then heard Slavica say to him 'if you're signed off, being the suite lead I expect you to be able to do the job, and if you're not confident it's not ideal to be signed off, because once signed off you're expected to be able to do it'

6. Can you recall where this took place and who else was present using this conversation?

In the suite, Sara was present, and Slavi and Rehan

1. In late August early September did you complete a return-to-work meeting with Rehan?

Yes

2. Did Rehan explain his conditions to you?

I need to take a look I can't remember, I manage 15 people and they go off for different things. I would've raised an F11 on it, for the return to work

VJ – can you take a look?

It was 14 August, me and him, he said he had a headache and insomnia. I said you haven't met any triggers, but he was still in probation, so I said can't pay you because of that. Details of issues discussed, I asked if he was OK, any issues at home affecting work, just want to make sure you're ok, he said all OK. He said he may have other symptoms because he's taking prescribed medication, and I said referred to OH for that. Actions agreed – he said he's OK to be at work. I said don't have to specify for me as I'm not your direct manager but want to make sure he's OK to be here. Advised him of the trigger levels for the policy

3. Based on this information, did you complete an OH referral for Rehan?

No, it would have to be completed by the manager, so I would've sent it to Razwan in case there was any sensitive information

4. Did you ask Razwan to do it?

I would've messaged him, I can check my emails. I don't think I sent it on email no, possibly Teams, I can't be certain

5. Did you share information about the RTW meeting with Razwan?

So he would've seen it because I raised the ticket to F11 on Razwan's behalf, so he will have seen it

VJ – did you have any conversations about it?

Maybe, I'm not sure. It says on the form is he having any treatment and I said yes, medication, and then said OH referral and I said yes, for medication. I'm looking for the ticket, I'm doing a lot of tickets.

VJ – aside from the ticket, did you have any discussions with Razwan?

I would've said I did the RTW, but can't remember, it's 2 months ago. If it's not written down I can't recall 100%. I've found the ticket, I did raise it for Razwan.

I can't recall, sorry

2. On 11 October did you hear Slavica and Rehan discussing a Reducer?

No, sorry, no

3. On this day did you hear Slavica ask Rehan to carry out environmental monitoring?

No. I was upstairs at the time

4. How do you know about this?

I wanted to know how things were going in the suite, so I asked Rehan how things were going, everyone was late coming up, there was something wrong with one of the solos

5. What did Rehan say?

He talked about the solos, and then the incident with the environmental monitoring

6. What did he say?

Just that he tried to do it, but wasn't confident doing it, and she told him not to sign off on things he's not confident in

7. Was he upset?

Slightly, I think

8. Can you recall where this took place and who else was present using this conversation?

It was just me and him, upstairs in the hot desk area

9. On 12 October, did you hear Monika Courtnell mispronounce Rehan's name?

Yes I did

10. If so, what did you hear?

Just that he said she pronounced it wrong. They'd agreed another name, whatever name, I don't know, I'm not really sure, seemed they'd had the discussion before about maybe a nickname or what to call him, but I don't really know

11. Did you hear Razwan comment on the situation?

No, I was training so wasn't paying attention, sorry
