Step-by-Step Solutions for Ayaan

A: Evidence 1: He arrived 20 minutes before the gates opened. Evidence 2: He was wearing his favorite Arsenal kit for the trip.

Method: Inference (Domain 2d): Use direct evidence from the text to support your points.

A:

Link: The stadium is described as energetic at the start but tense at the end.

Evidence 1: At the start, the crowd was a 'roaring ocean of red'.

Evidence 2: At the end, there was a 'hushed, heavy silence'.

Explain: The contrast between 'roaring' and 'silence' shows how the atmosphere shifted as the game became closer.

Method: Comparison (LINK): Use the LINK structure (Link, Evidence 1, Evidence 2, Explain) to earn all 3 marks.

A: The author says the wind felt 'cold on their faces' and they could 'smell the woodsmoke' from the virtual fires.

Method: Inference (Domain 2d): Using sensory details as quotes provides strong evidence.

A: Immense means extremely large or huge.

Method: Vocabulary: Look at the surrounding sentences to find clues about the word's meaning.
